POST GRADUATION COUNSELING OFFICE

Sophomore To Do List

Spring Semester

- Remember the importance of your grades; keep working hard in class.
- Meet with your post graduation counselor.
- Start thinking about your interests, likes and dislikes, strengths and challenges.
- Keep an eye out for college fairs/virtual college fairs in the area and plan to attend.
- Attend presentations and meetings sponsored by the post graduation counseling office.
- Create a College Board account.
- Become more deeply involved in your extra curricular activities, and start seeking out more opportunities to take on leadership and serve those around you.
- Track your list of activities and awards.
- Continue to develop your relationships with your teachers, counselors, and mentors. Remember that you will be asking them for recommendation letters soon!
- Watch your social media activity. Colleges do check this!
- Make sure you have a professional email address to share with colleges.

Summer Break

- Visit colleges (in person or virtual), ask questions, and track your impressions.
- Read good books and continue to hone your writing skills.
- Use your summer well. Volunteer, travel, teach yourself something new, take a class, visit colleges, participate in a summer enrichment program, get a job, etc.
